

NEW Linda Besse Painting Workshop at Triple "D" Ranch

October 26 - 28, 2018

Grab your sketchbook, paintbrush, and camera to experience wildlife ambassadors up close and personal in Montana. This exciting new workshop with wildlife artist Linda Besse showcases the animals of world-renowned Triple D Ranch in natural habitats.

Autumn is the perfect time to see these animals as their winter coats are coming in and Triple D's professional trainers will give you ample opportunities to capture that fleeting gesture you want for your next painting.

Leading this exceptional opportunity is wildlife artist Linda Besse whose oil paintings are collected on five continents. She has been to 37 countries and all seven continents to research the fauna and flora for her paintings.

Triple D gives me the chance to see fur, eye, and movement details which enhance my field work. Besides, these animals are awesome and spending time with them gives me numerous new paintings ideas.
- Linda Besse

And this workshop is more than spending time with these animals. This is a hands-on working workshop where Linda will demonstrate her oil painting techniques and give you tips on lighting, capturing movement, and creating that special moment to take your work to the next level. Each day there will be time to paint, work up new ideas, and talk about the business of being a professional artist. Linda is a Signature Member of Oil Painters of America, Signature Member of the Society of Animal Artists, Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation 2017 Artist of the Year, and Safari Club International Foundation 2014 Conservation Artist of the Year.

This 3-day workshop includes eight photo sessions with Triple D's animals. Imagine getting that perfect reference photo of a Tiger or Arctic Wolf! Each morning the small group will head into the field and spend time with 2 or 3 species. Afternoons will include painting and workshop time or a possible photo session with an additional species.

If you have been waiting for the spark that will make a difference in your paintings, this is the workshop for you. In a fun atmosphere with Linda Besse, one of the nation's top wildlife artists, your work will become even more dynamic.
